From the memo's here it appears that the estimate has been split up, as it is stated that the construction of domes was not included in the tender notification and that the cost of dome estimate without domes is Rs 88,400/- It is for consideration whether this can be allowed and whether it would not interfere with the work, if the domes are to be constructed.

This is stated to have been done in the office of the Consulting Architect

The definite source from which the cost of dome estimate could be met has perhaps to be pointed out before the estimate is sanctioned and the tender accepted.

The Chief Engineer and the Consulting Architect who prepared the plans should may if approved be consulted as to whether tenders for masonry work could be accepted submitted for orders.

A

The Chief Engineer may be unofficially consulted as to whether the acceptance by the tender for Rs 69,939 for the work (without the domes) may be approved.

It seems desirable to sanction once for all the estimate for the work as well as the tender used by the tender.

The estimate has been sent to the Chief for scrutiny
